

Jack Schore Tennis

It's about...

Spanning his 30-year career, Jack Schore has coached two ATP top 30 professionals – former world No. 1 doubles player Richey Reneberg and Wimbledon Quarter-Finalist Dan Goldie. Jack continues to achieve extraordinary success at every level of the competitive game.

Career Highlights

Professional

- ✓ Coached a Wimbledon Quarter-Finalist and a U.S. Open Doubles Champion
- ✓ Coached five Top-Fifty professionals

College

- ✓ Holds All-Time best win-loss percentage at the University of Maryland
- ✓ Coached six All-Americans

High School

- ✓ Won National Championship
- ✓ Won nine conference titles

Juniors

- ✓ Coached dozens of Top-Ten nationally ranked players and Mid-Atlantic champions

Accolades

- Inducted into the Mid Atlantic Tennis Association Hall of Fame 2000
- Washington Post Coach of the Year
- Maryland Tennis Association Lifetime Junior Development
- Washingtonian Magazine Pro of the Year
- Three-time Montgomery County Tennis Coach of the Year

Testimonials

"Jack is probably one of the two or three best coaches in the country"

-Dick Gould (All-Time best head coach at Stanford University)

"Jack has a magical feel for the game"

-Richey Reneberg (Former #1 doubles player worldwide/top 20 singles player)

"Jack was my coach in the juniors and the pros. He knows how to get the most from his players"

-Dan Goldie (Wimbledon Quarter Finalist)

Jack Schore Junior Programs

Jack Schore Invitational Gold Program

jackschoretennis@gmail.com

(301) 641-5635